

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1901.

Entered at the Post-office at Fredericksburg, Va., as second-class matter.

All communications of every character should be addressed to "THE FREELANCE," Fredericksburg, Va.

RICHMOND, FREDERICKSBURG AND POTOMAC RAILROAD.

Schedule in effect Nov. 1st, 1901.

5:07 A. M. daily. Stops at Woodbridge, Stafford, and Quantico.

8:25 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

10:35 A. M. daily. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

12:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

2:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

4:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

6:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

8:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

10:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

12:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

2:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

4:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

6:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

8:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

10:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

12:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

2:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

4:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

6:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

8:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

10:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

12:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

2:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

4:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

6:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

8:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

10:35 A. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

12:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

2:35 P. M. daily. No local stops. Stops at Quantico and Woodbridge.

Current Comments.

Mr. David S. Forbes is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. Rufus Cooper has accepted a position with The T. N. Brent Store.

Miss Fannie Tucker Carmichael is the guest of relatives in Washington.

Mr. S. B. Dabney, of Brooke, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Mr. J. B. Hicks, wife and son, of Caroline, were in the city shopping Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith, of Newport News, are the guests of Mrs. M. E. Tompkins.

Mrs. W. S. Embury and daughter, Mrs. C. C. Rowlett, spent the day in Washington Tuesday.

Special bargains in Ladies' Oxford Ties at Baker, Brown & Crismond's, Perry & Co.'s old stand.

Miss Dubney Bonbrant of Auburn, Ala., has returned home after a pleasant visit to Miss Annie E. Fleming here.

Roy Carrie and Walter Miller (colored) were jailed at King George C. H. Tuesday on the charge of unlawful shooting.

Officer John T. Leavelle, of the Washington police force, is in the city and will spend ten days hunting and fishing.

Mr. J. Stansbury Wallace and family have moved into their new residence on the corner of Amelia and Princess Anne streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods, of Wheeling, W. Va., have returned home after a pleasant visit here to the family of Mr. J. S. Woods.

Dr. J. Garnett King will leave for Baltimore Monday, where he will be treated at the Johns Hopkins Hospital for kidney trouble.

Hon. J. H. Biscoe, member-elect of the Legislature from this city and county, was in the city Tuesday receiving the congratulations of his friends.

Miss Edna Lawrence, who has been visiting in Washington, N. C., has returned to Fredericksburg, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Sallie Lloyd Tappett.

Mrs. John Wallace Carmichael and children, of Washington, N. C., who have been the guests of Judge A. W. Wallace and family, have returned to their home.

Miss Minnie Wells has been quite sick at the home of Judge A. W. Wallace. She is now better. Her sister, Miss Willie Wells, of Annapolis, Va., has been nursing her.

Why wait until the prettiest have been sold before you get your new waist, new heavy skirt, new wrap, new furs, C. W. Jones (the Cash Man) has a splendid stock now.

When you want an exact and up-to-date photograph of yourself remember you can always have it made at the Fredericksburg Davis Gallery. All work guaranteed first-class in every respect.

Mr. W. B. Bruce, of Caroline, was in the city Tuesday. He is one of the most successful tobacco growers in the county, and generally gets the highest prices. His crop will bring him $1,500 this season.

You will always find at Hall's drug store a complete stock of Drugs, Chemicals, Toilet Soap, Hair Brushes, Combs, Tooth Brushes, etc., at prices to suit all. Prescriptions a specialty. Agency for Hawkes' celebrated spectacles. All eyes fitted without charge.

Mr. I. H. Middleton has bought out the E. J. Lowe jewelry establishment on Main street and is prepared to do all kinds of repair work in his line. He is a practical optician, and will visit the homes of any people in the city who want their eyes tested and glasses fitted. He keeps a full stock of watches and jewelry. Read his ad. and call to see him.

JOSEPH A. HALL
Died on Steamer Essex.

Agent H. M. Sweeney, of the Eastern State Hospital, has charged Mr. Joseph A. Hall, of Northumberland county, who had been adjudged insane, and was with him on the steamer Essex Monday en route to the hospital. He was feeble when taken on board at Taylor's. Shortly after he had a sinking spell, and Mr. Sweeney used stimulants to revive him, but with no avail. He died on board steamer at her wharf here Tuesday morning at 5:30. Dr. A. C. Boggett was summoned and pronounced him dead. The remains were placed in charge of Undertaker Wheeler and prepared for burial, and the body was shipped back to New York on the steamer yesterday. Agent Sweeney said to the Free Press that in an experience of twelve years, this was the first case of death he had ever had en route to the hospital. Hall was 55 years old.

MRS. LLOYD A. TURNER
She is Granted Divorce and Resumes Her Maiden Name.

In the Circuit court, of this city Monday, Judge J. E. Mason presiding, through her attorney, W. D. Carter, Mrs. Lloyd A. Turner was granted a decree of absolute divorce on statutory grounds, and was restored to her maiden name of Adeline L. Mayo.

Fire in Orange.
The residence of Mr. L. R. Brookings, in Orange county, was destroyed by fire Monday. A fierce wind was blowing at the time, and it was impossible to save any of the property. Among the articles lost was an old family piano, valued highly by the family.

The Barbour Quarles Bill—Pro and Con.
Messrs. H. H. Wallace, J. M. Griffin, T. Mcrackin and other prominent liquor dealers of this city, were in Richmond yesterday to appear before the committee of the Constitutional Convention, to oppose the Barbour Quarles liquor bill. A gentleman yesterday made the statement that a large delegation of our citizens, who are advocates of the passage of the Barbour Quarles bill, will go and appear before the committee this week.

Good Fishing in Essex.
Messrs. James E. McDaniel and J. B. Scott, of Tappahannock, caught in Piscataway creek, near their last week in four hours fishing, 45 large size bass. Capt. A. F. Bagby, the champion fisherman of Essex county, now holds second place as Mr. McDaniel, on the occasion mentioned, caught thirty of the forty-five, which smashed Capt. Bagby's record. He caught three on the same day.

A LOVELY WEDDING.

Bell-Wheeler.

A most beautiful marriage was solemnized at the Baptist church Tuesday, at 1 p. m., when Miss Marie Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Wheeler, and Mr. Edward Clark Bell, member of the firm of W. A. Bell & Bro., were united by Rev. Dr. T. S. Dill in the presence of a large number of friends.

The church had been handsomely decorated with palms and potted plants by Frank T. Covey, the florist.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party arrived and entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. Harry Gladman, John B. Jones and William Humphreys, of this city, each usher in full dress, wearing Devanionian roses on the lapels of their coats. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Wilma Wheeler, came next looking lovely in a beautiful creation of point d'esprit over white tulle, a black velvet picture hat, and carrying La France roses. Then came the bride, clad in a blue broadcloth tailor-made suit, with hat and gloves to match, and carrying Mrs. Bell's bouquet.

At the home of the bride to be, leaning on the arm of her father and approached the altar, where stood the groom and his best man, Mr. Harry Lee Jones, of Richmond. A pretty picture was then presented to the ministers, the bride and groom, and the wedding ceremony took place in the usual manner. Immediately after the ceremony they took the 1:40 train for a wedding trip north. Miss Emma Baseler presided at the organ. The presents among the handsomest ever received by a bride in this city. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Bell will go to house-keeping in one of the new houses lately erected on upper Main street.

At night an entertainment was given at the home of the bride to be, a delightful affair, where a few friends, where a delightful supper was served. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and their youngest daughter, were present Misses Mary Brent, Alice Cole, Elizabeth Cole, Mattie A. Tansill, and Messrs. Harry Lee Jones, Harry Gladman, Jas. T. Bell, W. H. Humphreys and John B. Jones.

DR. J. P. ANDERSON
He is Sent Abroad.

The plague in Liverpool and Glasgow has caused the Marine Hospital service to appoint two surgeons of its staff in those cities. Dr. John E. Anderson, and Dr. Carroll Fox, Dr. Anderson is a Fredericksburger, a son of the late Capt. J. K. Anderson, of this city. He is a surgeon of ability and has had much experience, having been in Europe for three years, until the past six months, during which time he has been stationed at Ellis Island, N. Y.

Ben Brown Taken to Spotsylvania.
The arrest of Ben Brown, colored, charged with burning the Bowman barn and outbuildings in November last, was caused by the reward of $200, offered by the Underwriters' Association of Virginia. Mr. Bowman had no part in the arrest. Detective Woodall took up the case looking for the reward. Brown will not have a preliminary examination in this city. He was taken to Spotsylvania Monday by Sheriff T. A. Harris, and lodged in jail, and his examination will take place before Judge Oliver Eastburn today. Brown protests that he is innocent.

Deacons Ordained.
The ordination of four additional deacons occurred at the Baptist church last night. An impressive service was presided over by Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway. Rev. Dr. J. S. Dill made an interesting address setting forth the significance of the ceremony of ordination and then offered the ordaining prayer. The church had only six deacons, and to these are now added the names of D. C. Cole, J. N. Turner, E. T. Baker and J. R. Rawlings, making a full board of ten.

Passed His 75th Mile Post.
Mr. J. H. Myer has just passed his 75th mile post of life and is active, hale and hearty. He spends twelve hours every day at business, and takes a walk every morning of several miles. He is one of our best and most trustworthy business men, and during his career here of over 50 years, has always enjoyed the confidence and esteem of our people.

Rummage Sale of People's Mission.
The ladies of the People's Mission will commence a rummage sale in the Bradford building Nov. 21st, and continue for three days. The proceeds will go to carrying forward the good work of the Mission and helping the poor during the winter. All contributions will be thankfully received at the building on Wednesday, Nov. 20th. If not convenient to send, they will be called for.

A Speaking Likeness.
In the Confederate Veteran for October is a picture of the delegates of the Southern Methodist Conference, who attended the Ecumenical Conference in London. The picture was taken at the tomb of John Wesley, and a speaking likeness in the group is that of Mr. P. V. D. Conway, of this city, who was a delegate to the Conference.

Died of Gout.
James Young, Jr., the 8-year-old son of Mr. James Young, an employee at the Woolen Mills, died Tuesday night of gout, after an illness of two days. The funeral will take place in the Sunday-School room of the Baptist church this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock.

Death of Dr. T. O. Linthicum.
Dr. T. O. Linthicum, one of the best known and most prominent physicians of this city, died at his home near Corbin Monday, after an illness of several weeks. He is survived by a widow and four children.

Winter Excursion Rates.
Effective Oct. 15, 1901, excursion rates are placed on sale by the Southern Railway to all principal winter resorts of the South and Southwest. Ask any agent Southern Railway for full information.

An Error.
We are requested to state that in the hand bill of delinquent State taxes for 1900, now being circulated, the charge of $80.60 against the estate of W. I. King is erroneous, as all taxes against said estate have been paid.

Taken to Williamsburg.
Agent H. M. Sweeney, of the Eastern State Hospital, took to that institution Tuesday W. G. Callahan, of Richmond County, and James Towles, of this city, both adjudged insane.

MRS. HENRY GORDON.

Dies of Heart Failure.

Mrs. Irene Gordon, nee Irene Boulware, wife of Mr. Henry Gordon, son of the late Samuel Gordon, of "Santee," in Caroline, died at her home in that county Sunday, after a long illness. She had been a sufferer from heart trouble for several years, and lately contracted fever. She was well known in this section heart trouble again attacked her, and she passed away quietly. The deceased was a woman of rare qualities, a model housewife, and a devoted Christian. Her demise will be felt by her husband, who is left without children, but by the friends and neighbors with whom she was a great favorite. Funeral services were held from the residence Wednesday. Rev. S. S. Ware, of Grace church, officiating, and the interment was made in the burying ground at "Santee." Mrs. Bettie G. Wallace, Mrs. Josephine Wallace, and Miss Nannie Goodwin, of this city, attended the funeral.

Kilwinning-Crosse Lodge at Bowling Green.
Kilwinning-Crosse Lodge, No. 237, of Masons, at its regular meeting last Monday night in Bowling Green, in Caroline, changed its time of meeting from the second Monday night to each month to the Friday night next after the second Monday night in each month, to take effect with the January monthly meeting of the lodge in 1902. The stationed officers of the lodge are: R. D. Vincent, Master; F. M. Travis, Senior Warden, and Judge J. B. Seuer, Junior Warden—the regular delegates to the Grand Lodge, which meets in Richmond Tuesday, Dec. 3, and in the event of their not being able to attend the following proxies were chosen: S. W. Broadbent, Judge E. C. Moncure and Jas. A. Scott. After a very harmonious session refreshments were served.

Bernard M. Temple Dead.
Mr. Bernard M. Temple, son of the late Benjamin Temple, of Spotsylvania, died at Galveston, Texas, on Oct. 3, after an illness of many weeks, aged 54 years. The deceased was born and raised in Spotsylvania. In the war of '61-'65 he was a gallant member of the Potomac Battery and was twice wounded. He was a civil engineer of note and was at one time chief engineer of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe R. R. He superintended the construction of the greater portion of it through Texas. The town of Temple, in that State, was named in his honor. With the exception of Dr. Brooke Temple, who is living, the deceased is the last of a number of brothers, who served in the war of '61-'65. He is survived by a widow and two children.

Essex Notes.
Mr. Wm. Tallaferrro, of Baltimore, Col. Stevens, of Holoken, N. J., and Mr. Lewis, of Richmond, are the guests of Mr. B. B. Brockenbrough, at Tappahannock, and are having a royal time hunting birds, which are very abundant in Essex.

The family of Judge Thomas Croxton, of Essex, will move to Tappahannock in a few days to spend the winter. Judge Croxton's health has not been good the past summer.

Capt. Richard C. Croxton, of the U. S. Army, will arrive in Tappahannock this week, and will spend some time with his father's family there.

In Honor of Her Guests.
Miss Annie E. Fleming was the hostess at a delightful entertainment Monday night, given in honor of her guests, Misses Elizabeth Worthington, of Alexandria, and Dabney Bonbrant, of Auburn, Ala. Her guests were: Misses Hattie, Lily Woods and Jennie Goodrick, Messrs. H. H. Henderson, E. M. Young, Jr., R. Tyler, G. C. Moseley, F. L. W. Green, W. H. Harkamp, R. H. Carmichael, Dr. J. P. Stiff and H. H. Henderson.

Heart Party.
Miss Bruce Goodrick gave a heart party in honor of Miss Worthington, of Alexandria, Tuesday night. Those present were: Misses Worthington, Annie E. Fleming, Lily Winn, Mattie Franklin, Lily Woods and Jennie Goodrick, Messrs. H. H. Henderson, E. M. Young, Jr., R. Tyler, G. C. Moseley, F. L. W. Green, W. H. Harkamp, R. H. Carmichael, Dr. J. P. Stiff and H. H. Henderson.

LOCAL MARKETS.
(Corrected by Simon Hirsch & Bro.)
Wheat, 65 to 75; corn, 63 to 65; new corn 50; meal, $1.35 to $1.40 per 100 pounds; oats, 35 to 40; fowls (live), 6 to 7; turkeys (live), 6 to 7; dressed 10; ducks (live), 6 to 7; spring chickens, 8 to 10 per pound; lard, 10 to 11 cents; butter, 15 to 20; hams, 12 to 14; Irish potatoes 60 to 75; beef, 3 to 3 1/2; veal, 3 1/2; pork, 5 to 6; hides (green), 5 to 6; hides (dry), 7 to 8; hauled hay, $10 to $14 per ton.
Wool—Unwashed, 16 to 17; washed, 23 to 24.
Lead—Summit—60 to 65 cents per hundred pounds.

THE GRAIN MARKETS.
The grain markets closed yesterday as follows:
Chicago—Wheat, Nov. 71 1/2; Dec. 71 1/2; corn, Nov. 57 1/2; Dec. 58 1/2; May, 61 1/2; oats, Nov. 38 1/2; May 40 1/2.
New York—Southern wheat, 70 to 80; corn, 62 to 63.
Baltimore—Southern wheat, 70 to 75; Southern corn, 62 to 63.
Richmond—Wheat, 74 to 75; corn, 64 to 65.
Alexandria—Wheat, 68 to 69; corn, 63 to 64.

THE SATISFACTION IN BUYING Groceries

at our store is mutual. We take satisfaction in carrying in stock the best of everything, selling at and serving customers promptly and courteously. Those who trade here take satisfaction in the goods, the store-service and prices.

Reasonable Prices

Have you tried the sweet, tender and delicious Bandanna Hams at 15c. pound, our fancy Large Shore Mackerel at 10c. each, or 3 for 25c.; genuine Boneless Codfish, 10c. pound; 3 pounds for 25c.; prime Roe Herrings, 25c. dozen; best Frankfurt Sausage, 10c. pound; best Picnic Hams at the low price of 10c. pound? This is a bargain. We have

Oranges, Lemons, Grapes, Peaches, ETC., AT

LOWEST PRICES

W. L. BRUNNEN, OPERA HOUSE GROCERY.

WATCH IT!
THIS SPACE BELONGS TO
CHANCELLOR & RAWLINGS,
FARMERS' SUPPLY STORE,
Commerce Street, Fredericksburg, Va.

We Have Been to Headquarters

(New York), we have bought many bargains and now they are here and arriving daily, and we purpose giving those that trade with us the advantage of our close buying. No house can undersell us, no house can offer you as an attractive line and no house will give their patrons better service than we are going to do this November and December.

For 27c. per pound we will give you a Mocha and Java Blended Coffee that no house in Fredericksburg would think of offering you at less than 30 or 35c.
For 20c. per pound we will give you a Java and Laguayra Blended Coffee that is certainly unmatched in this city, and for 12 1/2c. per pound we can and will, give you as fine Rio Roasted Coffee as it has ever been your pleasure to drink for anything like the price.

TRY US ON COFFEES

of any grade or price, but don't forget these three values: Mocha and Java Blend, 27c.; Java and Laguayra Blend, 20c.; Rio, 12 1/2c. Our Dried Fruit Specials will appear in these columns next week.

W. L. Brannen.
CLOAKS!
A FEW CUTS OF
The New Styles
—TO BE HAD AT—
C. W. JONES' CASH STORE.

Stock and Styles are all Here, NOW WHILE THE ROADS ARE GOOD, NOW WHILE THE

GET THE CHOICEST, WHY NOT MAKE SELECTIONS?

FURS.

The largest stock, the greatest variety, newest and most select styles ever brought to this market, with LOWEST PRICES ever named for same quality. Fur Boas, Fur Collarettes, Fur Muffs, Furs of all sorts at

C. W. JONES' CASH STORE.

DRESS GOODS and SILKS.

The greatest variety we have ever shown, Haven't space here to tell you of them.

BLANKETS

you must have. JONES can supply the want in all things in the Dry Goods line. We are the busy, up-to-date people, but will give one and all the best store service to be had anywhere.

This Fertilizer Distributor
IS FOUND ONLY ON THE
BICKFORD & HUFFMAN DRILLS.
It will handle fertilizer that other makes can't touch. This Drill has a porcelain-lined fertilizer bottom. Call and examine our Drill.
DECKER & ALRICH.

KANGAROO CALF
—IS THE MATERIAL USED IN OUR—
Medium-weight Woman's Shoe
RECOMMENDED FOR FEET PRICE, $1.50.
BRULLE & TIMBERLAKE.
"From Loom to Wearer."
All the Latest Fabrics for Women's Suits and Skirts at Mill Prices.
WASHINGTON WOOLEN MILLS
810 MAIN STREET.

THE CONWAY & GARNETT NATIONAL BANK,
FREDERICKSBURG, VA.
DEPOSITS SOLICITED. NEGOTIABLE. PAPER DISCOUNTED.
All Correspondence Promptly Answered in sealed Envelopes.
Handsome Lithographed Check Books presented to each Customer.
Merchants' Business Cards placed on their Checks.
BANK OPEN FROM 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

CARTRIGHT & DAVIS
Granite, Marble & Statuary
TOMBSTONES & CURBING
OFFICE & WORKS
FREDERICKSBURG, VA.